

Sitalkuchi College
Department of Geography
Honours Course

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES OF GEOGRAPHY HONOURS COURSE

Following the guidelines of UGC and the department of Higher Education, Government of West Bengal, the course curriculum of Geography Honours course is restructured into CBCS format. The main objective of introducing this course is to demonstrate a deep understanding of key concepts, theories and methods in the field of Geography. Moreover, it is expected that after completion of this programme the students will be able to do the following:

- Apply critical thinking and analytical skills to analyse, interpret and solve complex geographical problems through field visits and excursions.
- Develop spatial analysis skills using GIS and other geospatial technologies.
- Collaborate effectively in interdisciplinary terms and engage in professional and ethical manner.
- Demonstrate a global perspective and understanding of the interdependence of human and natural systems across different scales.
- Apply the computer –based techniques in analysis and representation of geographical information and prepare for emerging job opportunities
- Understand and engage with ethical issues in Geography and contribute to sustainable development practices.
- Able to effectively communicate geographic information and research findings both orally and writing to diverse onlookers.
- Continuously engage in lifelong learning keeping themselves up-to-date with advancements in the field of Geography and applying them into professional practice achieve in securing